The Collect of the Day

Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, that we may continually be given to good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Old Testament

Jeremiah 29:1, 4-7

These are the words of the letter that the prophet Jeremiah sent from Jerusalem to the remaining elders among the exiles, and to the priests, the prophets, and all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had taken into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon.

Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the exiles whom I have sent into exile from Jerusalem to Babylon: Build houses and live in them; plant gardens and eat what they produce. Take wives and have sons and daughters; take wives for your sons, and give your daughters in marriage, that they may bear sons and daughters; multiply there, and do not decrease. But seek the welfare of the city where I have sent you into exile, and pray to the LORD on its behalf, for in its welfare you will find your welfare.

The Gradual

Psalm 66:1-11 Jubilate Deo

Simplified Anglican Chant

After Song 13
Orlando Gibbons

- 1 Be joyful in God, all you / lands; *
sing the glory of his Name;
sing the glory of his / praise.
- 2 Say to God, "How awesome are your / deeds! *
because of your great strength your enemies cringe be/fore you.
- 3 All the earth bows down be/fore you, *
sings to you, sings out your / Name."
- 4 Come now and see the works of / God, *
how wonderful he is in his doing toward all / people.
- 5 He turned the sea into dry land,
so that they went through the water on / foot, *
and there we re/joyced in him.
- 6 In his might he rules for ever;
his eyes keep watch over the / nations; *
let no rebel rise up a/gainst him.
- 7 Bless our God, you / peoples; *
make the voice of his praise to be / heard;
- 8 Who holds our souls in / life, *
and will not allow our feet to / slip.
- 9 For you, O God, have / proved us; *
you have tried us just as silver is / tried.
- 10 You brought us into the / snare; *
you laid heavy burdens upon our / backs.
- †11 You let enemies ride over our heads;
we went through fire and / water; *
but you brought us out into a place of re/freshment.

†Second half of chant

The Epistle

2 Timothy 2:8-15

Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David-- that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained. Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory. The saying is sure:

If we have died with him, we will also live with him;
if we endure, we will also reign with him;
if we deny him, he will also deny us;
if we are faithless, he remains faithful--
for he cannot deny himself.

Remind them of this, and warn them before God that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

(Ushers will seat latecomers.)

The Gospel

Luke 17:11-19

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee. As he entered a village, ten lepers approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!" When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice. He prostrated himself at Jesus' feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? But the other nine, where are they? Was none of them found to return and give praise to God except this foreigner?" Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

At the Offertory God Is My Strong Salvation Tune from "The Sacred Harp", 1844

Austin Lovelace

God is my strong salvation: what foe have I to fear?
In darkness and temptation, my light, my help is near:
Though hosts encamp around me, firm in the fight I stand;
What terror can confound me with God at my right hand?
Place on the Lord reliance; my soul, with courage wait;
His truth be thine affianced, when faint and desolate;
His might thy heart shall strengthen, his love thy joy increase;
Mercy thy days shall lengthen; the Lord will give thee peace.

Hymn at the Presentation

Hymnal # 380, v. 3 Praise God, from whom all blessings flow
Praise God, from whom all blessing flow;
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

The Great Thanksgiving, Eucharistic Prayer D

WLP #858 Holy, holy, holy Lord--Sanctus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
Heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest. Hosanna in the highest.

Land of Rest

The Breaking of the Bread

WLP #875 Be known to us, Lord Jesus

Be known to us, Lord Jesus, in the breaking of the bread.
The bread which we break, alleluia, is the communion of the body of Christ.
Be known to us, Lord Jesus, in the breaking of the bread.
One body are we, alleluia, for though many we share one bread.
Be known to us, Lord Jesus, in the breaking of the bread.
