Keenager Programs 2008/09

September 16 All About Wine with Norman Tuller

Norman is a member of Saint John's and a judge for the American Wine Association. He has his own label. He will be speaking on all aspects of wine making , tasting and judging.

October 21 Gangs of Columbia with Investigator Walls of the Gang Awareness Task Force of Columbia

Investigator Walls will be giving us information on the status of gangs in the Columbia area. He will provide tips on recognizing and avoiding gang activity.

November 18 Women's Prison of Columbia with Judy Anderson

Judy is a member of Saint John's and is an administrator at the women's prison. She will be speaking to us about life at the prison and will be giving us ideas on how we can assist inmates and staff at the facility.

December 16 Gospel Sextet Spirit's Call

Spirit's Call is a gospel sextet from the Irmo area. They have traveled extensively bringing their upbeat music to many up and down the Eastern seaboard. You will not be able to keep your feet from tapping as they sing both new tunes and old gospel favorites. Bring your friends to hear this most excellent group.

January 20 Carolina Wildlife Care with Joanna Weitzel

Carolina Wildlife Care is a nonprofit organization dedicated to caring for and rehabilitating injured wildlife. Their goal is to return animals to the wild as quickly as possible. We will learn about the center and will discover ways in which we can assist in their efforts.

February 17 Marrying into a Southern Family with Rodger Stroup

Rodger is a member of Saint John's. He sings bass in the choir and is married to Martha, who sings alto (and the occasional soprano when she does not like the alto part). Rodger will be giving a humorous description of the trauma involved when one marries into a Southern family.

March 17 Buddhism with Clyde Ireland

Clyde is a member of Trinity Cathedral. He has studied Buddhism extensively and will be talking to us about this fascinating religion and philosophy of life. You will find that the teachings on day to day living and obligations to your fellow human beings are not as far from our Christian ethic as you might think.

April 21 A Gullah Tale : Moses, Pharaoh, and the Peezle Tree with Matthew Fletcher

Matthew is a member of the Church of the Apostles and is an outstanding storyteller. The tale that he will tell is a classic Gullah story. He will be using the Gullah language as he understands it and will tell us a bit about the origins of Gullah.

May 19 Tales of the Cat Keeper with Chris Himes

Chris is the cat keeper at the Riverbanks zoo. He will be entertaining us with stories of the every day challenges of feeding, exercising, and attending to the medical needs of the big cats at the zoo.
